Dear Ms. Searcy:

On November 18 and 24, 1992, representatives of Bellcore, Arthur Andersen, US WEST, the Bell Operating Companies (BOCs) using the Switching Cost Information System (SCIS) and the Tariff Division participated in conference calls during which the Tariff Division described the supplemental issues that it will require Arthur Andersen to examine. The supplemental issues or requests described by the FCC have arisen from staff review of the ONA tariff filings, as well as from comments filed by intervenors in response to the Direct Case submissions of the BOCs.

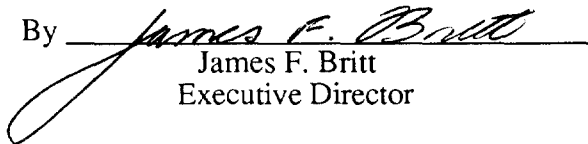

The purpose of the above mentioned calls was, primarily, to enable Arthur Andersen the requisite time to assemble the appropriate team of experts. Secondly, it was incumbent on Arthur Andersen to develop both a schedule for completion of the supplemental examination and an associated fee estimate. In order for Andersen to complete these tasks, specifics as to the form and substance of the supplemental requests was required. Also, Bellcore (SCIS), US WEST (SCM) and a representative for those BOCs who used SCIS in the ONA Tariff Proceeding participated such that the required SCIS, SCM and BOC data/reports could be obtained in sufficient time to support the Andersen supplemental examination.

Participating in the calls for the Tariff Division were: Stan Wiggins, Tom Quaile and Steve Spaeth. Representing Arthur Andersen were: Joseph Perrone, James Farmer and Craig Conwell. Bellcore, US WEST and the BOCs were represented by: James Britt, Anna Lim (Janice Stalhut replaced Ms. Lim on the 24th) and Janice Atherton of Southwestern Bell, respectively.
